Hunt County follows the Texas 4-H guidelines for Clover Kids. Emphasis is on providing project-related learning experiences and forms of recognition which are age appropriate and based on current youth development research. The individual project is the basis for a significant part of the education in 4-H.

Projects approved by the Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service for Clover Kids include:

- Dog Care & Training
- Fashion & Interior Design

- Food & Nutrition
- Health & Personal Safety
- Horticulture
- Photography
- Rabbits
- Robotics
- Sport Fishing

Projects are restricted to those mentioned above which the clover kid can, by themselves, understand, manage, and care for and for which the youth can master the associated subject matter knowledge.

Danforth “I Dare You” Award

William H. Danforth’s book, I Dare You, was first published in 1931. It is still considered one of the most influential books in personal motivation. I Dare You is published and distributed by the American Youth Foundation through its I Dare You committee. The I Dare You Award is open to Senior 4-H members. Award recipients receive a copy of I Dare You, a certificate, and an invitation to apply for a scholarship to attend a 7-day International Leadership Conference (ILC) at one of A.Y.F.’s three sites (Michigan, New Hampshire, or California). The award recognizes excellence in character, well-balanced personal development, and potential for leadership. & Complete Recordbook
